#YearOfTheGirl February Honoree –

Imani Marcella Ti’Bri Walker

Imani is a 7th grader at Holy Comforter School. She is a loving, humble, kind, smart, funny and athletic child with a fearless demeanor and a colorful personality. She is very active in her church, Anderson Chapel AME, where she is a member of the Young People’s Department (YPD) and the usher Board, choir and “Divine,” a praise dance group. Imani volunteers at Miracle Hill Nursing Home and the Gibb Maury Village, to which she delivers socks and toiletry items for the residents. She also sings at Miracle Hill during the holiday season. Imani is a member of the National Achiever Society, plays the violin, soccer and runs track and cross country. Imani wants to attend college and then medical school to become an obstetrician and gynecologist. She believes that her purpose is to serve God while on Earth by serving Him and others.

The Tallahassee/Leon County Commission on the Status of Women and Girls is honored to recognize Imani Marcella Ti’Bri Walker as the February 2017 Year of the Girl Honoree
