

NAS Alumni in the Spotlight!

Taylor Williams,
Medical Doctor Candidate

“This photo was taken of the group of Summer Research Student participants (Medical Doctor Candidates) at the Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, in New York City. It was the last day of the summer research program. Taylor Williams, 4th from the left on the front row is a 2012 NAS Graduate of the Tallahassee Area Coalition Center of Excellence. She is currently a member of the Morehouse School of Medicine’s Class of 2020”.
