

I-10 Connection 2017..Tallahassee Area Coalition Center of Excellence

Achievers from Centers of Excellence geographically located near the I-10 corridor met in Tallahassee on January 14, 2017 for the Annual I-10 Connection. The day consisted of a Historical Walking Tour to the Riley House, Smokey Hollow Community site and on to the Black Archives Museum at FAMU. The tour which began at Cascades Park concluded at the renowned School of Business and Industry (SBI) at FAMU. The I-10 Connection 2017 was hosted by the Tallahassee Area Coalition Center of Excellence (TACCOE) under the direction of Center Director, Dr. Malinda James and with great support from the TACCOE National Achievers Society Parent Alliance (NASPA) under the leadership of Mr. Stacy Tinner, Jr., President

Ms. FAMU gives an inspirational speech to members of Centers of Excellence (COE) from North FL COE, Santa FE Community College COE, and the Tallahassee Area Coalition COE at the Annual I-10 Connection held in Tallahassee on January 14, 2017

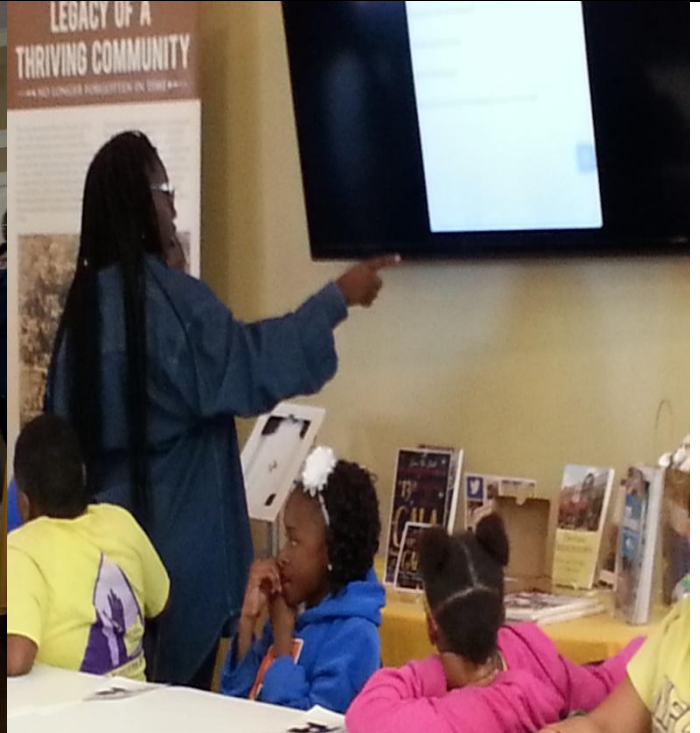

Arianna Young, Jermaine Edwards, Hanniah Edwards, Ms.FAMU 2017 Amberly Williams

Students and parents listen to a presentation by FAMU Enrollment Coordinator, Mr. Augustus Mitchell, as he shares the rich history at Florida A&M University.

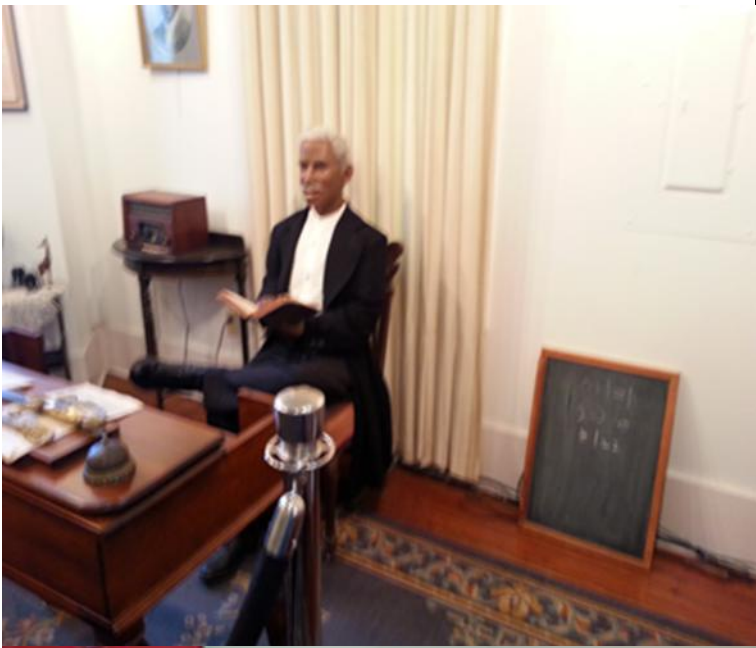

Dr. James and Riley house orator share historical information before the students began to tour the Riley House

Inside the Riley House Museum

It's lunch time. Students, parents and friends enjoy a nutritious bag lunch.

The I-10 Connection 2017 comes to a close after lunch and presentations at the Florida A & M University School of Business and Industry (SBI)

Out of town achievers travelled by bus. It was a beautiful sunny and enriching day for all.