Good afternoon,

This week zipped by. Our class completed a variety of learning activities and the students continue to be enthusiastic learners. We enjoyed celebrating "Be Bold, Go Gold" today. We had fun listening to "Memoirs of a Goldfish" and working on a goldfish directed drawing. The book has such a sweet message and the drawings are so adorable! We enjoyed some Pirates Booty and gold coins. Thanks to Claire's family for surprising us with some "Gold Doughnuts!" They were yummy 😊

Conferences: This year conferences will be held either by phone or Zoom. I will be setting up a Signup Genius soon with dates/times to sign up. Once that is ready, I will send you the link. I will also send home material ahead of time for you to review that we will discuss during our conference.

Scholastic News: We receive several Scholastic News magazines today. We will begin enjoying this subscription next week. Thanks again for your support!
