All Springwood College Prep Students would abide by the following Dress Code Guidelines effective beginning with the 2017-18 School Year. Please note that embroidery is NOT required for any items.

Top:

- Students would be required to wear a collared polo shirt (short or long sleeves) in one of the following colors: Navy Blue, Light Blue, Gray or White.
- Students may wear their school purchased Spirit T-Shirt on Fridays and for other announced special events.
- Optional items that can be worn in the same colors:
 - Cardigan Sweater or Sweat Shirt (Navy Blue, Light Blue, or White) (optional)
 - Blazer (optional)
 - Solid Collard Dress shirt (optional)

Bottoms:

- Students would be required to wear bottoms (shorts, skirts, jumpers, or pants) in one of the following colors: Khaki, Black or Navy Blue (must be at least knee length or longer and cannot sag below the waist).
- Young men should wear a Black or Brown Belt with their bottoms that have belt loops and shirts should be tucked-in. (Pre-K and K students may wear elastic waist bottoms).
- Students may wear jeans without holes on Fridays and other announced special events with their school spirit shirt or a top as outlined above.

Shoes:

- Students must wear closed toes shoes that are majority Black, Blue, Gray, White or Brown in color. No Sandals or open-toed shoes are allowed.

All students and families will have until Labor Day to secure appropriate clothing before infraction notices and consequences would be issued. Springwood PTO and SAC would work to purchase at least one (1) Navy Blue polo shirt for every child enrolled each year to assist families with clothing.
