Leon County School District does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, national origin, age, or disability in any program or activity conducted by the school district.

The Florida Student Registration form is used to register students for school. It contains information about the student's name, address, and other personal details. The form also includes spaces for parents to sign and date, and for school administrators to fill in dates and information about the student's enrollment status.