Program Overview

The Chiles High School Culinary Arts program is a ProStart school that prepares students to enter the workforce not only with skill and work ethic, but also equipped with the SafeStaff Foodhandler, Servsafe and NRFSP certifications. These are respected, nationally recognized certifications in the food service industry. Students with these certifications will have an advantage against their peers during and after high school.

The Culinary Arts Program covers:

- Employment opportunities
- Workplace safety procedures
- Workplace communication skills
- Use and care for equipment and tools
- Cooking and baking techniques
- Food safety and service
- Food science
- Principles of nutrition
- Cultural cuisines
- Food receiving, storing and inventory guidelines
