By joining this book club, we ask that you commit to participating fully by your consistent attendance, the reading of your chosen novel and willingness to share you thoughts with the group. Our meetings will run from 6:30-7:45 PM on the designated evenings once per 7-9 weeks.

Each meeting starts with snacks (of course!), breaking into discussion groups, hearing books talks about the next group of novel choices and choosing your next book. The discussions will be led by some of our very own Montford staff and are quite enjoyable!

Come join us! If you have questions, just e-mail me: drakek@leonschools.net

We will meet in the Media Center on the following dates:
