Mrs. Curry’s Vocabulary BINGO list!

1. Problem Solving Strategies
2. Order of Operations
3. Venn Diagram
4. Absolute Value
5. Least Common Denominator
6. Estimate
7. Place Value
8. Product
9. Quotient
10. Vinculum
11. Unit Rate
12. Algorithm
13. Ratio
14. Symbol
15. Rational Number
16. Area
17. Simplest Form
18. Reciprocal
19. Improper Fraction
20. Greatest Common Factor
21. Percent
22. Fraction
23. ‘Of’ in math
24. Compatible Numbers

1. ‘NIKE’, ‘Draw a Diagram’, ‘Guess, Check & Revise’, and ‘Solve a simpler problem’ are examples of these.
2. This tells you which operation to perform first so that everyone finds the same value for an expression.
3. A diagram that is used to show relationships between sets.
4. The distance of a number from zero on a number line.
5. The least common multiple of the denominators.
6. To find an answer that is close to the exact answer. Your best guess.
7. The value given to the space a digit holds because of its place in a numeral.
8. The answer to a multiplication problem.
9. The answer to a division problem.
10. The fraction bar that separates the numerator from the denominator, or bar over a repeating decimal.
11. A rate with a denominator of 1.
12. A step by step process to find a solution, like a cooking recipe for math.
14. A pattern or image used instead of words: example: + means addition.
15. A number that can be written as a fraction or ratio.
16. Size of a 2 dimensional surface. The number of square units needed to cover a given surface.
17. A fraction whose numerator and denominator have no common factors other than 1.
18. Any two numbers with a product of 1.
19. A fraction where the numerator is greater than or equal to the denominator.
20. The greatest factor that two or more numbers have in common.
21. A ratio that compares a number to 100.
22. A number that names part of a whole, part of a collection, or part of a region. It is written in the form \( \frac{a}{b} \), where \( b \) is not 0.
23. Means to multiply in math.
24. Numbers that are easy to multiply & divide mentally.
