Reminders

- Please remember to send in your $3 for our pizza party on Friday if you have not done so already.
- I am sending home a Language Arts study guide which lists concepts studied this year. Please look it over with your child as a type of review for our upcoming ELA FSA. Students have worked hard this year and I am excited for them to get to "Show What They Know". You will also find a review packet that we did in class. I went over their answers with them individually. We will be doing another one next week.
