

Language Tips

Encourage your child to use accurate grammar and complete sentences throughout the day.

VOCABULARY

Use the weeks vocabulary words in a sentences that defines them
(i.e., A ___ is a ___.)

Cut up the sentences word by word
(i.e., A / ___ / is / a / ___.)

Scramble the words and rebuild the sentences matching the vocabulary words with their definitions.

Definition:

Questions - wh- and how questions are statements you use to ask for information.

There are five types of wh- questions: who, what, when, where, and why.

Who questions ask for information about people.

What questions ask for information about nouns.

When questions ask for information about time.

Where questions ask for information about locations.

Why questions ask for the reasons that something happened.

How questions ask for the steps for reaching a goal.

Examples:

Who questions

Who flies a plane?

Who builds houses?

What questions

What is an animal that barks?

What plays music?

Where questions

Where is South Carolina?

Where do you go to school?

When questions

When did you come home?

When is your birthday?

Why questions

Why do we wash clothes?

Why do we go to school?

How questions

How do you make a peanut butter & jelly sandwich?

How do you make a sand castle?