

JULY

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
READ a BOOK	Play "Seek-n-find" while reading by finding sight words in familiar books: with, out, good	Write 5 Onsets & Rimes (cat, boy, etc.) on cards. Then cut between the onset and the rime to make puzzle pieces (b/oy). Use these to play matching games.	Count out enough nickels and pennies to make a roll. Which coins are bigger? How many pennies equal one nickel? Take them to the bank.	Sound out 3 4-letter words, counting out the sounds on your fingers. Write the letter that matches each sound.	Use a calendar to discuss the days of the month and begin counting down to the First Day of School.	READ a BOOK
READ a BOOK	Play "Seek-n-find" while reading by finding sight words in familiar books: it, we, orange	Write 5 Onsets & Rimes (cat, boy, etc.) on cards. Then cut between the onset and the rime to make puzzle pieces (c/at). Use these to play matching games.	Count out enough dimes and quarters to make a roll. Which coins are smaller? How many pennies equal one dime? Take them to the bank.	Sound out 3 4-letter words, counting out the sounds on your fingers. Write the letter that matches each sound.	Make a book about you summer so far.	READ a BOOK
READ a BOOK	Play "Seek-n-find" while reading by finding sight words in familiar books: black, over, as	Write 5 Onsets & Rimes (lend, tall, etc.) on cards. Then cut between the onset and the rime to make puzzle pieces (l/end). Use these to play matching games.	Gather all the shoes lying around and put 2 pair away. How many pairs of shoes do you have left to put away.	Sound out 3 4-letter words, counting out the sounds on your fingers. Write the letter that matches each sound.	Sit outside tonight and talk about the sounds you hear and the stars.	READ a BOOK
READ a BOOK	Play "Seek-n-find" while reading by finding sight words in familiar books: purple, not, had	Write 5 Onsets & Rimes (lend, tall, etc.) on cards. Then cut between the onset and the rime to make puzzle pieces (t/all). Use these to play matching games.	Gather all the toys lying around and put 1/2 away. How many pairs of toys do you have left to put away.	Write a simple sentence, sounding out each word in the sentence.	Name as many balls as you can and how they are used (i.e., soccer, tennis, volleyball)	READ a BOOK
READ a BOOK	Play "Seek-n-find" while reading by finding sight words in familiar books: long, know, give	Write 5 Onsets & Rimes (hand, etc.) on cards. Then cut between the onset and the rime to make puzzle pieces (h/and). Use these to play matching games.	While eating your snack count how many pieces you have. How many do you have left after you eat four?	Write a simple sentence, sounding out each word in the sentence.	Talk about mother and baby animals (i.e., hen-chick, duck-duckling, goose-gosling)	READ a BOOK