

What Body Parts Enable Digestion, Waste Removal, and Reproduction?

1 After you swallow, food travels from your mouth to your stomach. Through which organ does food pass between the mouth and the stomach?

- (A) esophagus
- (B) large intestine
- (C) small intestine
- (D) bronchial tubes

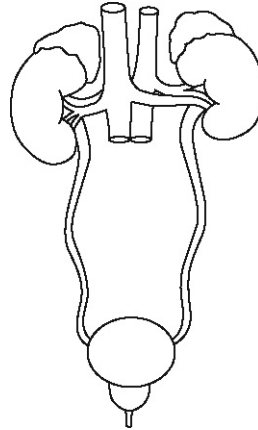

2 Some organs function in several different body systems. Which organ functions in the excretory system and in another body system?

- (F) lungs
- (G) ureter
- (H) bladder
- (I) kidneys

3 The urinary system is important to your body's proper functioning. Which of these describes the function(s) of the urinary system?

- (A) aids in reproduction
- (B) breaks down solid food
- (C) stores important nutrients and vitamins
- (D) regulates fluid balance and eliminates waste

4 The diagram below shows the parts of a human body system.

Which body system is shown in the diagram?

- (F) urinary system
- (G) digestive system
- (H) circulatory system
- (I) respiratory system

5 Human development is a complex process. Where does human development occur?

- (A) in a structure of the female urinary system
- (B) in a structure of the female digestive system
- (C) in a structure of the female circulatory system
- (D) in a structure of the female reproductive system