

Pre-K Post

November 8, 2024

We are off to a fun start with our tree study. We went for a tree walk and explored different trees on our campus. We collected sticks and leaves while on our walk and compared the sizes of the sticks. Then we measured the sticks using connecting cubes and counted how many cubes long each stick was. We read several poems and identified rhyming and non-rhyming words. We practiced the concepts of more and less by building and comparing towers. We also played a less and more game on the smart board. We made play dough art, then described our art pieces. Everyone was very creative. We had purses, burritos, family members, worms and pizzas, just to name a few. This gave students an opportunity to expand their descriptive vocabulary and add details to make their pieces more unique. It was fun.

In Rebound and Recovery, we continued to discuss the feeling of calm. We learned how to use a finger labyrinth and a bean mandala to help us feel calm when we are sad or angry. The students really enjoyed it.

Our books this week were, Our Tree Named Steve, Abiyoyo and Chicka Chicka Boom Boom.

Many thanks to all of you for the birthday cards for Mrs. Davis. A special thanks to Ayan's mom for making us several delicious treats. She loved it all and was very grateful.
