

I have always tried to show you that things can mean one thing for someone and another to someone else. I may have been hard to deal with over the year with the constant work and high expectations but I know that you all have the ability to get there. So tell me what the class meant to you. What do you remember the most or simply what will you miss the most.