2024 – 2025 Parent and Family Engagement Plan

School Name	Fort Braden
LEA	Leon County Schools

I, Todd Lanter, do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of parent and family engagement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition outlined in Section 8101, ESEA; as amended by ESSA.
- Involve parents/families of children served in Title I, Part A in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement are spent.
- Jointly develop/revise with parents the school parent and family engagement plan, distribute it to parents of participating children, and make available the parent involvement plan to the local community.
- Involve parents and family members in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning and review, of the school parent and family engagement plan.
- Use the findings of the parent and family engagement policy to review and design strategies for more effective family engagement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parent and family engagement plan.
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will submit parent comments with the plan to the local educational agency.
- Provide to each parent an individualized student report about the performance of their child (ren) on the state assessment in ELA, Math and Science.
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or been taught for (4) four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who has not completed the criteria for state certification.
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals.

Mission Statement

Parent and Family Engagement: Mission Statement (Optional)

Response:

Fort Braden School, in partnership with its parents, seeks to educate and support students as they develop into lifelong learners. The school will work with all stakeholders to provide a nurturing environment where all students can achieve academic and personal excellence.

Engagement of Parents

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for parent and family engagement will be used [Sections 1116].

Response:

All parents shall be invited and encouraged to attend: Quarterly School Advisory Council (SAC) Meetings, Monthly Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) Meetings, Parent Representatives will attend parent involvement district trainings and committee meetings as well as monthly Title 1 (TAC) and District Advisory Council (DAC) meetings. The school will provide information and explain to parents the requirements of Title I and parents' rights through: Parent Right To Know letters sent home and available in the parent resource room, Monthly Newsletters, the school's website, FOCUS Communication System, the school's marquee and student flyers. The school will seek parent feedback through: conferences, surveys both electronic and paper form, and meeting forums. The school's parent involvement/social PLC will also include parent feedback in their plans for literacy nights and other events.

Coordination and Integration

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I- Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title V [Section 1116].

Count	Program	Coordination
1	Parent Workshops	Various parent workshops will focus on academic content and work-study skills to provide parents with strategies to improve their student's academic and social emotional progress. These events will help parents to engage their students in literacy practice and help the families.
2	Celebrations of Success	Various celebrations, performances, and award ceremonies will provide access to parents and teachers the opportunity to share in promoting student achievements, both for academic and social emotional progress.

3	Title I	Funds will be used to hold parent/family workshops and to train parents and teachers on strategies that will support student achievement.
4	Title II	Funds will be used for professional development in the areas of: positive behaviors, Learning Progressions, lesson plan design, utilizing growth mindset, communication and collaboration, and family engagement.
5	Title IX	School will utilize district FIT program to provide services.

Annual Parent Meeting

Describe the specific steps the school will take to conduct an annual meeting designed to inform parents of participating children about the school's Title I program, the nature of the Title I program (school-wide or targeted assistance), Adequate Yearly Progress, school choice, supplemental educational services, and the rights of parents. Include timeline, persons responsible, and evidence the school will use to demonstrate the effectiveness of the activity [Section 1116].

Include translated version of all documents.

Flexible Parent Meetings

Describe how the school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and how will the school provide with Title I funds, transportation, childcare, or home visits, as such services related to parent and family engagement [Section 1116].

Response:

Meetings will be advertised and posted on the school's marquee, on flyers and social media, and sent out through FOCUS in advance to encourage parent involvement. In addition, monthly newsletters will convey important dates and times for parent meetings. We will hold activities at different times during the school year in an effort to accommodate parents and community members' schedules. We will also request input from parents on alternative times and/or locations for meetings and programs. The school strives to make these events family friendly so that parents do not need alternative childcare. Also, a parent resource center will be located on campus (in Guidance) and will be open during school hours.

Building Capacity

Describe how the school will implement activities that will build the capacity for strong parent/family involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school, and the community to improve student academic achievement. Describe the actions the school will take to provide materials and training to help parents work with their child to improve their child's academic achievement. Include information on how the school will provide other reasonable support for parent/family engagement activities under [ESEA Section 1116].

Other Activities

Describe the other activities, such as parent resource centers, the school will conduct to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children [ESEA Section 1116].

Response:

We will have a parent resource room with relevant literature and a computer so that parents can have access to relevant websites and programs. We also send home monthly newsletters by mail and FOCUS email that highlight important school information. Parents are invited to participate as partners, mentors, and volunteers. They are also encouraged to actively participate in field trips, PTO and SAC meetings and other school events.

Communication

Describe how the school will provide the following under [ESEA Section 1116].

- Provide a description of how parents/families will be given timely information about the Title I programs.
- Describe and explain the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress and the achievement level standards the students will obtain.
- If requested by parents, how will the school provide opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children; and
- Methods the school will use to submit parents/families comments if the school-wide program plan is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, that will be made available to the local education agency [ESEA Section 1116].

Response:

Parents will be given information about Title I and how the program is utilized at the school during the beginning of year meetings such as Open House and SAC. Also, administration will send home Right-To-Know letters and Parent Compacts at the start of the school year to make parents aware. Title I information will also be shared through FOCUS email, Flyers, newsletters, and on the school's social media

Parents will learn about curriculum used at the school and in the district as well as how students will be assessed in order to measure student mastery through several avenues. Parents will be invited to SAC meetings, attend grade level meetings, parent teacher conferences, and meeting with our Problem-Solving Team. Parents will receive information from teachers through school-wide agenda books, the Remind app, Class Dojo, and other forms of communication.

Parents are encouraged to actively participate and/or have representation in the PTO, SAC, TAC, and DAC meetings. This gives them the opportunity to have input on the Parent and Family Engagement Plan and School Improvement Plan. Parents are also asked for their input through surveys presented in multiple medias throughout the year.

Accessibility

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in parent/family engagement activities for all parents/families and how the school plans to share information related to school and parent/family programs, meetings, school reports and other activities in an understandable, uniform format and in languages that the parents/families can understand.

Response:

School will provide translations as needed for parents who have limited English proficiency. We will offer translations by school and district personnel or by software. We will also hold meetings at various hours to accommodate a multitude of work schedules and strive to make events family friendly so that parents rarely have to find childcare.

Discretionary Activities (Optional)

The Parent and Family Engagement Plan includes the following discretionary activities that the District, in consultation with parents, chose to undertake to build parents' and families' capacity for engagement in the school and school system to support their children's academic achievement.

Count	Content/Type of Activity	Description of Implementation Strategy	Person(s) Responsible	Anticipated Impact on Student Achievement	Timeline
