A SPECIAL THANK YOU

Thank you to Ms. Davis for leading an art workshop for the Editorial Board members. Please go to pages 8-10 to see their creations.

Thank you Ms. Davis!

Pawprints is a literary magazine created by Gilchrist Elementary School students. The students choose to join this after-school club and commit to a six-week term on the Editorial Board. Their involvement is extra-curricular and purely voluntary.

Grizzlies are brown
Gilchrist is red
We love coming to school
And getting out of bed
Gilchrist is family
Opportunities are made
Dreams become reality
So give some cheer
Let's go grizzlies!

The Stare

By Trinity Starke

Yes, many people know the famous stare,
"The Stare"

When many people squint their eyes and stare at you

until you look away

in defeat

To See a Cat (A Haiku)

By Trinity Starke

A majestic cat
Prancing ever so lightly
To hear its meow

Haiku Structure:

5 syllables

7 syllables

5 syllables

Artwork by Isabella Youngberg

Roses are red
Violets are blue
I have two feet
Each has a shoe

Some are red
Many are torn

Some have been eaten by dogs
Billions of shoes have never been worn
