

Summary Information:

Classification Title: Speech Language Pathology Assistant      Date Prepared: 11/2013
FLSA Status: Non-Exempt

Typical Decisions and Recommendations Provided to Others:

This position requires the regular exercise of independent discretion and judgment within defined policy parameters in area of specialty. Work follows specific procedures, however the incumbent may determine priorities, organize own work and occasionally make exceptions to procedures.

Activity Identification*Activity Name

750D	Instructional Support	Provide direct speech language pathology services under the supervision of a licensed Speech Language Pathologist.
242B	Instructional Staff Consultation	Observe and assist Speech Language Pathologist in providing resources and training to educators and parents that will assist in eliminating or inhibiting the onset and development of communication disorders.
751	Instructional Delivery	Adapts instructional programs to fit individual needs of students, i.e., use of an array of instructional aids and equipment.
757	Student Progress Reporting	Participates in meetings and assists teachers in communicating student progress to parents, school and/or District staff.
756	General Instructional Support	Provides support and assistance to teachers and staff in care giving and supervision of students. Assists in preparation of classroom materials and monitoring student management systems.
755B	In-Service Training	Participates in appropriate professional development activities to maintain the Speech Language Pathology Assistant License
999	Assigned Duties	Perform other duties as assigned.

General Classification Specification Factors:

Education/Experience:	Bachelor's degree with no related experience required. Appropriate certification/license as required by the Florida Department of Health
Supervisory Responsibility:	None
Type of Supervision:	N/A
Effective Date:	11/20/2013