PRINCIPAL & ASST. PRINCIPAL REPORTS

MATT AND KIFFANI

DISCUSSION	Matt <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Black History Month updates – will defer to Dr. Browning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rickards Band (two buses came to school) and they put on a great performance – they marched and were a wonderful group to have the kids see an organized band! Shadow days continue the next two Fridays this month Vickie's last day was a nice recognition by staff for her on the 31st for her retirement Lisa Neely from RAA Middle School (used to be their bookkeeper) and she has a lot of experience with field trips and the like and it has been a smooth transition to our have her join the staff. Vicky has remained in contact to take calls and help with questions. Drama club production coming up on the 17, 18 & 19th Showcase night Valentines are getting passed out and a great success March 6th-10th is the intensives week Spring break is the 13th -20th PTSO meeting the 14th move to the 21st SAIL Foundation – Young Frankenstein performance on 3/23 Kiffani <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Shadow days - every Friday in the month of February emphasize first Friday for Shadow days - 20 students approx. each month Black History month - gearing up for February <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Dance, step teams, live band for Friday 28th Ted Talks – Attorney who spoke at FAMU last month and was great, so he will be coming to campus
