

A Young Plant

There are many different plants. A young plant gets features from its parent. Features are size, shape and color.

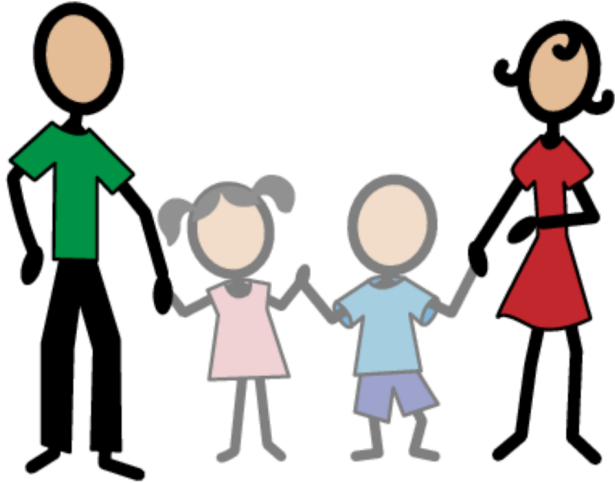

Most plants have leaves. Leaves can be different shapes and sizes. A young plant will have the same leaves as its parent.

Many plants have flowers. Flowers can be different colors. A young plant will have flowers like its parent.

Plants come in all sizes. A young plant will grow to be about the size of its parent.

A young plant will grow to look like its parent.