Program Launch: June 14, 2021

A program where parents can find mentorship and advice to figure out the best approach to addressing issues that are affecting them and their children.

The program provides parents with access to resources and individuals that can help them in their time of need.

The mentors will help the parents make decisions that are in their family's best interest.

The program seeks to create a sense of community and partnership and gives parents a shoulder to lean on as they figure out the mysteries of parenting.

Circuit 2 Parent Navigator Program

Parents, with a servant's heart, supporting other parents.
