Welcome

- The meeting was brought to order at 6pm by Mr. Minor

Approval of December 2019 minutes

- Mr. Minor made a motion for the approval of the December 2019 Minutes. Minutes were approved.

Principal Report

Early Childhood Education

Brook Brunner, Director of Early Childhood Education spoke about the advantages of early childhood education. She stated it is critical to the child's success in education to get an early start through quality programs and community partners.

- The Return on Investment is $7 for every $1 spent
- Currently Leon County serves 950 kids in various programs
- Parents need to take advantage of pre-K programs
- Leon County has free developmental screenings for 3-year-old kids

Graduation Rate

Rickards has reached a milestone 93.1% graduation rate for the 2018-2019 School Year. Mr. Cook expressed thanks to all teachers, students, staff, and parents.

Mental Health Curriculum Days

Students have taken the online course; and have mixed feelings about the course. Some students felt it was a waste of time; while others felt it was helpful and should have been offered years ago.

Construction Update

Construction continues to go well.

- Work crews are tearing down the 500 and 300 buildings
- 1300 Building is currently under renovation
- 1900 Building will be complete in the summer

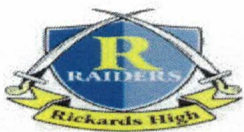

Saturday School

Saturday School is set to begin February 1, 2020 for all students. Students will be able to take advantage of the following:

- Prep for EOC testing
- Receive tutoring
- Clear attendance failures

Participating students will be served breakfast and a snack
