

HELLO LEON THEATRE STUDENTS!!

I am feeling lonely without each of your wonderful faces in my day. And I intend to tell you all how to keep in touch and have a few moments of Theatre in your quarantined life because I know you are missing our daily Theatre class...

- 1) Go to LeonTheatre.com
- 2) Click on STUDENT CHECK IN FOR ASSIGNMENTS
- 3) Then click on your class level/period block

There will be assignments on there. Plus videos and ways for you to respond and get in touch with me during the next few weeks.

There will also be assignments listed in Focus/Gradebook and links on there to where those assignments are online.

BUT start on LeonTheatre.com (#checkthewebsite) and know that I am wishing we could all be together to do our Feelings and Intentions everyday!

Dramatically yours,

lea marshall
