

US History: End of WWI thru The Jazz Age

Test Review

Test: Thursday, March 12, 2020

Vocabulary

Supply Side Economics
Cooperative Individualism
Isolationism
Mass Production
Assembly Line
Model-T
Nativism
Anarchist
Creationism
Evolution
Prohibition
Speakeasy (Blind-Pig)
Bohemian
Mass Media

Terms/Events

The Treaty of Versailles
"Return to Normalcy"
The Ohio Gang
Teapot Dome Scandal
Wall Street Journal
Mellon and Supply Side Economics
Lowered Income Taxes and US Budget
Peace and Isolationism
Economic world Power
The Dawes Plan
Disarmament
The Washington Conference
Five Power Naval Limitation Treaty (Japan)
Four Power Treaty (Pacific Islands)
Nine Powers (China)
Kellogg-Briand Act (outlaws war)
London Naval Treaties
Mass Production
Ford and the Model-T
Assembly Line/Interchangeable Parts
$5 a Day
Radio Broadcasting
National Broadcasting Corporation (NBC)
Harding's Election Returns
Consumer Economy

Disposable Income
Consumer Goods (tissues/cola/fridges/razors)
Changing Perception of Credit
Consumer Credit (installment payments)
Mass Advertising
Nativism
Immigration
Red Scare
Sacco and Vanzetti Case/Trial
Anarchists
Nativism and the Ku Klux Klan
Southern and Eastern Europe
Emergency Quota Act
National Origin Act|
Mexican Immigration
Women in the 1920s
Sanger and the American Birth Control League
Fundamentalists
Evolution
Creationism
The Scopes "Monkey" Trial
Bohemian Lifestyle
Art and Literature in the 1920s
Realism
Popular Culture
Movies (Silent and "Talkies")
The Jazz Singer
Radio Programs
Radio and Sports
Great Migration and Politics
Black Nationalism

People

Warren G. Harding (Pres./R)
Alfred B. Hall (Interior/Teapot Dome/$300k)
Charles Forbes (Vets medical supplies)
Harry Daugherty (German businesses)
Calvin "Silent Cal" Coolidge (Pres./R)
Andrew Mellon (Sec. Of Treasury)
Charles G. Dawes
Frank Kellogg (US)
Aristide Briand (France)
Henry Ford

Edward Armstrong (radio)
Nicola Sacco
Bartolomeo Vanzetti
Margaret Sanger
John T. Scopes
Clarence Darrow (Defense)
William Jennings Bryan (Prosecution)
Marcus Garvey

How to study

- Review your notes
- Re-read sections and review the PPT where you have questions/need clarification
- Make connections between things – it is easier to remember if you can find ways that one thing/term/event connects to another. Formation of Republican Party → Lincoln elected President → Secession → Fort Sumter → more states secede → Civil War
- Have any questions? Email me and ask them. I'm happy to help!