

What are Florida Postsecondary Comprehensive Transition Programs (FPCTPs)

Florida Center for Students with Unique Abilities

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

Expands inclusive postsecondary opportunities that include pathways to career credentials and competitive integrated employment.

Prepares students to lead a full and inclusive life in the community of their choice.

What institutions are included?

Universities, state colleges, and technical colleges.

The purpose of a FPCTP is to increase independent living, inclusive and experiential postsecondary education, and employment opportunities for students with intellectual disabilities.

Who is eligible to enroll in a FPCTP? A student with an intellectual disability, who is 18 years old or older, and has exited the K-12 system.

Who is eligible for a scholarship? A student who is enrolled in a Florida Postsecondary Comprehensive Transition Program and maintains satisfactory academic progress. Students can earn up to a $7,000 scholarship.

Where is the FCSUA?

The University of Central Florida in Orlando Florida.

Signed into law by Florida's governor on January 21, 2016, with the intent that students with intellectual disabilities and students with disabilities have access to meaningful postsecondary education credentials and be afforded the opportunity to have a meaningful campus experience.
