This Week's Focus

Dear Parents,

Happy Friday! I hope you hear many amazing details about the sea creatures we observed today. Sea to See was a wonderful experience for our Second Graders and connects quite nicely with our next Wonders unit.

Next week, your child will take the Wonders Unit 1, Week 3 test independently. Second Graders are expected to read, answer comprehension questions, and communicate effectively through writing. They can do it! We have been practicing these skills together in class. Please take a moment to encourage your child and sincerely praise effort and stamina when you see his/her score. Being challenged is good exercise for brains. Have a super weekend! ☺
