

Take French:

French is a living language:

2nd language in terms of learners in the world;

125 million people study French around the world;

half a million of French teachers  outside France.

French is a modern language

4th most used language on the Internet, which now brings together over 4 billion users;

3rd most used language in business (the Francophone area now accounts for over 15% of global wealth);

French is an international language

2nd most-used language in diplomacy, particularly European and multilateral diplomacy, after English;

Official UN language;

Working language of the European Union and the African Union;

- Official language of the Olympic Games

An elective for your High School Career:

- French I
- French II
- French II
- AP French