

Interview Project

Transcription Rubric, Due January 21, 2020

- Type the interview in a script style with the questions asked and answered: _____/80
- Email or print and give them to Mrs. West at westj1@leonschools.net : _____/20
- This will be graded as a Homework Assignment.

Essay Prompt

Write a biographical essay about the subject of your interview (the person you interviewed.) This should be in chronological order and be a multi-paragraph response. The final paragraph should be a reflection on what emotional lessons you learned or gained through this process. For example, if you have a new appreciation for the person or if they inspired you in any way.

Essay Rubric, Due February 3, 2020

- Purpose, Focus, Organization of ideas: _____/40
- Use of information from the interview: _____/40
- Conventions of Standard English: _____/20
- This will be graded as an Assessment.

Oral Presentation

Students should organize a summary of facts and reflection and present this information clearly. The presentation can be memorized or read from notes or a *PowerPoint presentation. There must be a relevant visual of either the subject of the interview or a topic from the interview (example: military images, pictures of the subject's birthplace from the time, etc.)

Presentation Rubric, Due February 3-5, 2020

- 1.5-3 minutes in length: _____/40
- Summary of essay and interview: _____/40
- Relevant visual: _____/20
- This will be graded as Classwork.

*If students will be using PowerPoint in their Oral Presentation, this should be emailed to me by February 3, 2020.