

Creating a Web Page — Part 2

In this activity, you will create a Web page using an HTML text editor.

Your page should contain the following:

- A description list that displays the terms Web browser, Web server and Web host, along with the definition of each term.
- An appropriate heading to the page.

Save the page as Lesson3_Ex2.html, and then view it in a browser.