

Lesson 1 Quiz

---

Circle the correct response for each question.

1. Why is it important to protect your online identity?
  - a. Because everyone does it.
  - b. Because you will make more friends.
  - c. Because being online is a safe environment.
  - d. Because someone might steal your personal information.

2. How long can your "digital footprint" last online?
  - a. Forever
  - b. Minutes
  - c. Months
  - d. Hours

3. Which term describes a set of rules for appropriate behavior while on the Internet?
  - a. Identity
  - b. Netiquette
  - c. Cybersecurity
  - d. Social network

4. Which term describes bad people who watch and read your personal information online for the purpose of harassing or harming you?
  - a. Online teachers
  - b. Digital footprints
  - c. Online predators
  - d. Social networkers

5. If you are leaving traces of personal information about yourself online, available for anyone to obtain, then you are damaging your:
  - a. grades.
  - b. friendships.
  - c. gaming record.
  - d. digital footprint.

6. One of the most popular online activities — and one that poses the greatest risk to your privacy — is:
  - a. online gaming.
  - b. watching movies.
  - c. social networking.
  - d. checking e-mail messages.

7. Which of these is the best way to monitor your online presence and how other people see your information?
  - a. Ask everyone you know to tell you what they see.
  - b. Make sure you have all your information visible.
  - c. Google yourself.
  - d. Use a password manager.

8. What is NOT true about your digital footprint?
  - a. Online predators never look at your personal information.
  - b. College admissions offices are not allowed to view this.
  - c. Potential employers can use your history to determine future employment.
  - d. You can erase your digital footprint.

9. Which of these is a good way to keep your online privacy?
  - a. Use an avatar or picture of some other object.
  - b. Make your posts visible to everyone, all the time.
  - c. Make your hometown, school, and sports team visible in your profile.
  - d. Post your cell phone number online.

10. Which of these is true about privacy policies on social media websites?
- a. They're required by law to be posted for users.
  - b. They can never change once they've been set.
  - c. The site does not have to inform you if they've been changed.
  - d. You can select which policies you would like for yourself.