

Lesson 4 Quiz

Circle the correct response for each question.

1. Which of the following would be considered a strong password?
 - a. Kim12345
 - b. mydogSpot
 - c. JLP17#butterflies
 - d. joesmithpelicanmiddleschool
2. When visiting a website, you notice a lock icon in the lower-right corner of the browser window. What does the lock represent?
 - a. A link to open another site.
 - b. A webpage that has a secure connection.
 - c. A program that prevents you from leaving the page.
 - d. A warning that you are not allowed to view this webpage.
3. Which of the following is an example of a scam?
 - a. A friend sends you an e-mail asking to borrow some money.
 - b. Your brother sends you a text message on your mobile device.
 - c. A pop-up appears in your online game urging you to click the image.
 - d. Your teacher sends you an e-mail message with the homework assignment.
4. Which term describes a self-replicating program that damages the normal operation of a computer?
 - a. Worm
 - b. Phishing
 - c. Virus
 - d. Plagiarism
5. Viruses, worms and trojans are common security threats that are often used in spreading:
 - a. scams.
 - b. malware.
 - c. downloads.
 - d. passwords.

6. You are creating a new online account. What piece of information that you supply should be strong and hard to break?
 - a. A password
 - b. A user name
 - c. An e-mail address
 - d. A picture of yourself

7. While Trish was playing an online game, a pop-up appeared, prompting her to click on the flashing lights to receive more points for her game. What should she do?
 - a. Click on the flashing lights.
 - b. Turn off the game and the gaming console.
 - c. Click the X in the corner of the pop-up to make it go away.
 - d. Save the pop-up message until she really needs extra points to win.